Are you considering cancelling your event due to concerns surrounding COVID-19?

Whether you were planning a gala, fundraiser, awards show, conference, AGM or press conference, we have you covered with safe virtual meeting solutions. We understand your organization or business must remain functional during times of physical distancing. You can reduce the risk associated with in-person meetings using our high quality video webcasting/webinar solutions which can be optimized for apps such as Webex & Zoom.

Baldwin AV offers HD video webcasting in a multitude of languages with flexibility to suit your individual needs. Seamlessly present to individuals in the room or across the globe without interruptions.

Here's what we're doing at Baldwin to keep people safe:

- Employees who are sick in the slightest are being asked to stay home until fully recovered
- Employees are washing their hands frequently and using gloves when handling equipment
- All equipment and gear is being wiped down and disinfected before and after each use

Baldwin AV can provide the following:

Teleconferencing

Are you seeking a turn-key solution for engaging your audience anywhere at any time?

Webcasting

Whether speaking to few or many participants, you need high quality, uninterrupted audio and/or video for your event/meeting.

Video Conferencing

You can reduce the health risk and expenses associated with physical meetings using high quality webcasting, teleconferencing or video conferencing solutions.
